

GRADUATE SCHOOL RESOURCES

Congratulations on taking the first step in considering graduate school! There is a lot of work that goes into selecting the right school for you.

Crown College offers an array of graduate programs that would suit your educational needs.

The Career Services office strives to help you to make the right choice.

Explore graduate school options:

- Gradschools.com - this site will “match” you to schools on their list. It is a very good site to search, but it does not include all schools. They are a for profit site.
- USNews.com - see their graduate school links.

Test Preparation: this is a partial list of resources.

- Petersons.com - a graduate school test preparation site.
- Princetonreview.com - another very good test preparation site.
- Testpreppractice.net - loads of information about tests.
- ets.org - GRE and TOEFL resources

Field Specific Associations: these have links to approved academic programs.

- American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy
- American Physical Therapy Association
- American Psychological Association (APA)
- Association of American Educators
- Association of American Medical Colleges
- Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business
- Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education
- Law School Admission Council
- National Athletic Trainers' Association
- National Association of School Psychologists
- National Association of Social Workers (NASW)
- North American Society for Sports Management (NASSM)

Paying for your Education

- Talk to the Admissions representative at each college/university about what they offer.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine your eligibility for loans @ studentaid.gov
- Sallie Mae - Has information about federal and private loan programs. Sallie Mae is a private loan program.
- Scholarships.com, a for profit site that has useful information.
