Sarah's mother always wanted to be a nurse, but a language barrier held her back from realizing her dreams. Now, her youngest is living out her dream and following God on this inspirational path He has prepared. "I've come to realize that I have my mom's heart of serving and her heart for compassion," Sarah said. In addition to be inspired by her mom, Sarah credits another source of inspiration for her career path. "Jesus is the perfect example as a nurse. He took care of the sick when nobody did."
